

Starting on June 27, 2011, the Uniform Collateral Data PortalSM (UCDPSM) will be available for submitting appraisal data files to Fannie Mae. To help you prepare to use the UCDP, today we are beginning the registration process and introducing new resources, including details on the new joint UCDP Support Center.

Preparing for the UCDP: New UCDP Resources and Support Center Now Available

Effective today, the new joint UCDP Support Center (1-800-917-9291) is available to answer your questions related to registration and submitting appraisals to UCDP.

As a reminder, as you prepare for the implementation of UCDP, we also encourage you to:

- Review our recently updated UCDP Overview and FAQs; and the new Fannie Mae UCDP Registration Page
- Determine how you plan to access UCDP to submit appraisal data files
- Prepare your appraisers to send the appraisal file in XML format

Latest Edition of 'Fannie Mae Monthly UMDP Yardstick' Newsletter Published

Today, the latest edition of the "Fannie Mae Monthly UMDP Yardstick" newsletter was posted on eFannieMae.com to help lenders, their technology vendors, and others involved in implementing the aspects of the Uniform Mortgage Data ProgramSM (UMDPSM). In it, Fannie Mae highlights where participants should be – in June, and in the months ahead – in adoption of the three aspects of the UMDP: the Uniform Appraisal Dataset (UAD), the Uniform Collateral Data Portal (UCDP), and the Uniform Loan Delivery Dataset (ULDD). The Yardstick also provides documentation and reference materials, along with training dates for learning more about these technical changes related to the Loan Quality Initiative.
